I work in all sorts of fields, on all sorts of projects, for all sorts of clients, with all sorts of tools. Big corporations and single individuals often have a similar way of engage with internet content. I provide a quality UX, an unforgettable brand image and in-depth developer support. I deliver maintainable code, for those who'll work on it after me. I won't work FOR you, I'll work WITH you. Let's meet! :)
